Henry Peters Causes Arrest of Better Half, and She Reports that He Demanded $20,000 to Save Her from Charge.

WELL - TO - DO.

Admits that She Was Married Once Before, but Says that She Secured Divorce from Husband No. 1 Before Annexing No. 2.

With her eyes red from weeping, Mrs. Henry Peters, of Lloyd's Neck, Huntingon, L. I., was arraigned before Magistrate O'Reilly in the Ewen Street Court, Williamsburg, to-day, charged by Her isband with bigamy. Peters, with hom she has not been living for some ime, lives at No. 201 Montrose avenue,

Peters got a warrant for his wife yesterday, alleging that when he married her on Nov. 1, 1902, she was already mared to Charles J. Lewis, of No. 145 West One Hundred and Sixteenth street, Manattan. The warrant was given to Po-iceman Sweeney, of the court squad, Ilceman Sweeney, of the court squad, and he went to Huntington to serve it.

He found Mrs. Peters living there in a handsome home with her mother, who is said to be very wealthy. When he served the warrant the two women deapounced the arrest as an outrage. They begged the policeman to allow airs. Peters to remain in her home over night, promising that she would appear lin court to-day, but as the warrant was peremptory the officer had no discretion.

The woman was therefore taken to Williamsburg and locked up in the Herbert Street Police Station. Later she was bailed out. When she was arrespend in court to-day she was represented by Lawyer John Roesch, who told the Magistrate that the charge of bigsamy had been made by the husband because his wife's mother had refused to give him $20,000.

"It is true," he said, "that Mrs. Peters married Lewis. She married him by July 6, 1899. They lived together about two years, and then she got a divorce from him. Later she met Peters and married him, but he knew of the divorce. After a short time he quarrelled with her because she would not give him all the money he wanted and she was obliged to leave him.

"Since that time he has been annoying her and her mother, threatening to have her arrested on the bigamy charge if she did not pay him what he demanded. When he asked for the $20,000. Mrs. Peters's mother, Mrs. Meyers, told him never to come into the house again and so he has brought this action."

The case was adjourned for a week, Mrs. Peters promising to produce in court at the next hearing evidence that she was divorced from Lewis before she married Peters.
